10.2 The general meeting may designate another corporate body as the body authorised to issue shares, for a fixed period not exceeding five years. The number of shares that may be issued is determined at the time of designation.

A designation made by resolution of the general meeting cannot be withdrawn, unless determined otherwise at the time of the appointment.

10.3 A resolution of the general meeting to issue shares, to designate another corporate body authorised to issue shares or to revoke a resolution to appoint may only be adopted on the joint proposal of the supervisory board and the management board. A resolution to issue preference shares, issued by a corporate body other than the general meeting, shall always be subject to the cooperation of the supervisory board in each specific case.

- 10.4 In the event of the issue of preference shares, a statement of the reason for the issue shall be given in a general meeting of shareholders within four weeks of the issue. A corporate body other than the general meeting shall not pass resolutions to issue preference shares without the prior cooperation of the general meeting in the specific case if this would or could result in an amount of preference shares being issued that exceeds one hundred percent (100%) of the amount of other shares outstanding.

CONDITIONS OF ISSUE, PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHT

Article 11.

- 11.1 The resolution to issue shares will also determine the price and other terms and conditions of issuance. Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 2 of article 12, the issue price may not be below par.
- 11.2 In the event that the amount to be issued has been announced and only a smaller amount can be placed, this latter amount will only be placed if this is explicitly provided for in the terms and conditions of issue.
- 11.3 Each holder of ordinary shares will have a pre-emptive right in proportion to the combined amount of his ordinary shares in the event of an issue of shares. He will however have no pre-emptive right to shares issued for a consideration other than cash, nor will he have a pre-emptive right to shares issued to employees of the company or a group company.
- 11.4 The issue with pre-emptive right and the period in which this right can be exercised will be announced in the Government Gazette (Staatscourant) and in a national newspaper.
- 11.5 The pre-emptive right may be exercised during at least two weeks after the day of notification in the Government Gazette.
- 11.6 The pre-emptive right may be limited or excluded by the corporate body authorised to decide to issue shares. Paragraph 2 of article 10 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

11.7 If a proposal is made to the general meeting to limit or exclude the pre-emptive right, the proposal must explain in writing the reasons for the proposal and the choice of the intended issue price.

11.8 A resolution of the general meeting to limit or exclude the pre-emptive right or to designate a corporate body authorised to do so shall require a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast if less than half of the issued capital is represented at the meeting.

Within eight days of the resolution, the full text of this resolution will be filed at the office of the trade register.

11.9 The holders of ordinary shares will have a pre-emptive right if rights to subscribe for ordinary shares are granted; paragraphs 3 up to and including 8 apply correspondingly. Shareholders will have no pre-emptive right to shares issued to a person exercising a previously obtained right to subscribe for shares.

12.2 However, it is permissible for those who, in the course of their profession, engage in the placing of shares for their own account to permit, by agreement, the payment of less than the nominal amount on the shares subscribed for, provided that at least 94% (ninety-four percent) of this amount is paid in cash at the latest when the shares are subscribed for.

12.3 On acquisition of each preference share, at least one quarter of the nominal amount must be paid on it.

12.4 Further payment on preference shares shall only be made after the company has called up the payment. The calling-up of further payment shall be made pursuant to a joint resolution of the supervisory board and the Management Board. Voluntary payment on preference shares is not permitted.

PAYMENT IN CASH

Article 13.

13.1 Payment on ordinary shares must be made in cash insofar as no other form of contribution has been agreed. Payment on preference shares may only be made in cash.

13.2 Payment in cash must be made in Dutch currency, unless the company consents to payment in foreign currency.

CONTRIBUTIONS OTHER THAN IN CASH

Article 14.

of the general meeting.

- 14.2 If contributions other than in cash have been agreed, it must be possible to value those contributions according to economic standards. A right to perform work or services may not be contributed.
- 14.3 Contributions other than in cash must be made immediately after the share has been subscribed for.
- 14.4 A description of the contribution other than in cash shall be drawn up, stating the value attributed to it and the valuation methods applied, as prescribed in Section 94a(1) of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code. The description shall relate to the condition of what is contributed on a day which is not earlier than six months before the day on which the shares are subscribed for.
- The description must be signed by the managing directors; if the signature of one or more of the managing directors is missing, this must be stated in writing with reasons for this omission.
- 14.5 An auditor must issue an opinion on the description of the contribution in accordance with Section 94a(2) of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code.
- 14.6 No description or auditor's opinion is required in the case referred to in Section 94b(3) of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code.
- 14.7 Within eight days of the date on which the shares are subscribed for, the auditor's opinion on the contribution or a copy thereof shall be filed at the office of the trade register, stating the names of the contributors and the amount of the part of the issued capital thus paid up.
- 14.8 The provisions of paragraphs 4, 5 and 7 do not apply insofar as the contribution consists of shares or depositary receipts for shares, convertible rights or profit-sharing certificates of another legal entity for which the company has made a public bid, provided that all or part of these securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market or a multilateral trading facility as referred to in Section 1:1 of the Dutch Financial Supervision Act or a system comparable to a regulated market or multilateral trading facility from a State which is not a Member State.

SHARES HELD BY THE COMPANY IN ITS OWN CAPITAL

Article 15.

- 15.1 The company may not subscribe for shares in its own capital when issuing shares.
- 15.2 The acquisition by the company limited by shares in its capital which are not fully paid up, or depositary receipts thereof, is null and void.
- 15.3 The company may acquire fully paid-up shares in its own capital or depositary receipts thereof, for no consideration or if:
- a. the shareholders' equity of the company less the acquisition price of the shares is not less than the sum of the paid and called up part of its capital and the reserves that must be maintained by law or under the articles of association; and

- b. the nominal value of the shares or depositary receipts for shares in its capital to be acquired, held or held in pledge by the company or those held by a subsidiary amounts to no more than half of the issued capital. The requirements referred to in this paragraph under a. are determined by the amount of the equity capital according to the most recent balance sheet, less the acquisition price of shares in the capital of the company or depositary receipts for those shares, the amount of loans as referred to in Section 98c subsection 2 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code and distributions to others from profits or reserves which the company and its subsidiaries owed after the balance sheet date. Acquisition in accordance with this paragraph is not permitted, if more than six months have elapsed after the end of a financial year without the annual accounts having been adopted.

15.4 Acquisition other than for no consideration may only take place if the general meeting has authorized the management board to do so. This authorization will be valid for no more than eighteen months. The general meeting shall stipulate in the authorization how many shares or depositary receipts in respect thereof may be acquired, how they may be acquired, and the price range.

15.5 The authorization not be required for the acquisition of shares in the company's own capital or depositary receipts thereof to be transferred to employees of the company or a group company by virtue of a scheme that applies to them.

These shares or depositary receipts thereof must be included in the price list of a stock exchange.

15.6 Acquisition of registered shares in contravention of paragraphs 3 or 4 of this article shall be null and void. The managing directors shall be jointly and severally liable vis-à-vis the transferor in good faith who suffers loss as a result of the nullity. Bearer shares and depositary receipts for shares acquired by the company in contravention of paragraphs 3 or 4 of this article shall be transferred to the joint managing directors at the time of acquisition. Each managing director shall be jointly and severally liable for payment to the company of the purchase price, together with interest at the statutory rate thereon, from that date.

15.7 Paragraphs 2 to 4 inclusive shall not apply to shares or depositary receipts for shares acquired by the company by universal title.

15.8 The management board is authorised to dispose of the company's own shares or depositary receipts thereof.

15.9 No vote may be cast in the general meeting in respect of a share belonging to the company or to a subsidiary, nor in respect of a share for which one of them holds the depositary receipts.

Usufructuaries and pledgees of shares that belong to the company and its subsidiary are, however, not precluded from exercising their voting rights if the usufruct or pledge was established before the share belonged to the company or one of its subsidiaries. The company or a subsidiary thereof may not cast a vote for a share on which it has a right of usufruct or pledge.

15.10 In determining the extent to which shareholders vote, are present or represented, or the extent to which the issued share capital is provided or represented, no account is taken of shares that, by virtue of the law, carry no voting rights.

- 15.11 The company may only pledge its own shares or depositary receipts for such shares if:
- a. the shares to be pledged are fully paid up;
 - b. the nominal amount of the own shares and depositary receipts thereof to be taken in pledge and already held or held in pledge together does not exceed one tenth of the issued capital; and
 - c. the general meeting has approved the pledge agreement.
- 15.12 The company may not provide security, give a price guarantee or otherwise warrant performance of or bind itself jointly and severally, or otherwise, in addition to or on behalf of others for the purpose of subscribing for or acquiring shares in its capital or depositary receipts for those shares. The prohibition does not apply if the shares or depositary receipts are acquired by or on behalf of employees employed by the company or a group company. These shares or depositary receipts must be included in the price list of a stock exchange. The prohibition provided by this paragraph and the exception thereof also apply to subsidiaries.
- 15.13 The company and its subsidiaries may only grant loans with a view to others subscribing for or acquiring shares in the company's capital or depositary receipts for such shares, if the management board so resolves and subject to the following conditions:
- a. the loan, including the interest received by the company and the security provided to the company, is granted at fair market conditions;

 - c. the creditworthiness of the third party or, in the case of multiparty transactions, of each of its counterparties has been closely examined; and
 - d. if the loan is granted for the purpose of subscribing for shares in the context of an increase in the company's issued capital or for the purpose of acquiring shares held by the company in its capital, the price at which the shares are subscribed for or acquired shall be fair.

The requirement referred to under b shall be determined by the amount of the shareholders' equity according to the most recently adopted balance sheet, less the acquisition price of shares in the capital of the company and distributions from profits or reserves to others that the company and its subsidiaries owed after the balance sheet date. If a financial year has elapsed for more than six months without the annual accounts having been adopted, the loan as referred to in this paragraph is not permitted.

- 15.14 The company shall maintain a non-distributable reserve in the amount of the loans as referred to in paragraph 13.
- 15.15 A resolution of the management board to grant a loan as referred to in paragraph 13 shall be subject to the prior approval of the general meeting. The resolution to approve shall be adopted by at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the votes cast.

- 15.16 If the approval as referred to in paragraph 15 is requested from the general meeting, this shall be stated in the notice convening the general meeting. At the same time as the meeting is convened, a report shall be filed at the company's offices for inspection by the shareholders and holders of depositary receipts, stating the reasons for granting the loan, the interest attached to it for the company, the conditions under which the loan will be granted, the price at which the shares will be taken up or acquired by the third party and the risks associated with the loan to the liquidity and solvency of the company.
- 15.17 Within eight days of the approval referred to in paragraph 15, the company shall deposit the report or a copy as referred to in paragraph 16 at the office of the commercial register.
- 15.18 A resolution of the management board to acquire or dispose of its own shares or depositary receipts for such shares shall be subject to the approval of the supervisory board.

Shareholders in this paragraph include usufructuaries and pledgees to whom the rights granted by law to holders of depositary receipts for shares issued with the cooperation of a company accrue.

- 16.8 The company will deposit the resolutions of the general meeting referred to in this article at the office of the trade register and will announce the deposit in a national newspaper.
- 16.9 The company must, subject to a declaration that the opposition is well-founded as referred to in the following paragraph, provide security or other security for the payment of its claim to any creditor who so desires. This does not apply if the creditor has sufficient guarantees or if the financial position of the company offers sufficient security that the claim will be paid.
- 16.10 A resolution to reduce the issued capital will not take effect as long as objections can be made as referred to in Section 100(3) of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code.

If an opposition has been lodged in a timely manner, the resolution will not take effect until the opposition has been withdrawn or the withdrawal of the opposition becomes enforceable. A deed of amendment to the articles of association required for the reduction of the capital may not be executed earlier.

- 16.11 If the company, as a result of the losses that were suffered, reduces its capital to an amount that is not lower than its shareholders' equity it will not be required to provide security or guarantees and the resolution shall take immediate effect.
- 16.12 After a joint proposal of the supervisory board and the management board, the general meeting may decide that all or part of a repayment on ordinary shares will not be made in cash but in shares in the company.

- 42.5 The auditor is entitled to inspect all books and records of the company, the inspection of which is required for the proper performance of his duties. The company's values must be shown to the auditor, if required. The auditor shall not disclose any information which has come to its attention or is communicated to it in connection with the company's affairs beyond the scope of the auditor's engagement. The auditor's remuneration will be payable by the company.

ADOPTION BY THE GENERAL MEETING

Article 43.

- 43.1 The general meeting will adopt the annual accounts.
- 43.2 The annual accounts cannot be adopted if the general meeting has not been able to take cognizance of the auditor's opinion referred to in paragraph 4 of article 42, unless Section 393(7) of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code applies.

SUBMISSION TO THE CENTRAL WORKS COUNCIL, AVAILABILITY, FILING AND PUBLICATION

Article 44.

- 44.1 The management board puts the annual accounts to the central works council for discussion.
- 44.2 The annual accounts, the annual report and the data to be added pursuant to Section 392(1) of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code must be available at the company's office as from the date of convening the annual meeting.
- Shareholders and depositary receipt holders may inspect such documents there and obtain a copy at no cost.
- 44.3 The annual accounts must be published within eight days of their adoption in accordance with Section 394 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code. Publication shall be effected by filing a full copy in the Dutch language at the trade register. The day of adoption must be recorded on the copy.
- 44.4 If the annual accounts have not been adopted in accordance with the statutory provisions within six months of the end of the financial year, the management board shall immediately publish the annual accounts in the manner prescribed in paragraph 3; the annual accounts shall state that they have not yet been adopted.
- 44.5 Simultaneously with and in the same manner as the annual accounts, a copy in the Dutch language of the annual report and of the other information referred to in Section 392 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code shall be published in accordance with the provisions of Section 394 of Book 2 of the Dutch Civil Code in conjunction with Section 25o of Book 5 of the Dutch Financial Supervision Act.

DIVIDEND RESERVATION

Article 45.

- 45.1 Each year, the management board and the supervisory board determine which part of the profit - the positive balance of the profit and loss account - is to be added to the reserves.
- 45.2 From the profit after reservation in accordance with the previous paragraph, a dividend will be paid on the preference shares, the percentage of which is equal to the sum of the weighted averages of the deposit rate of the European Central Bank - weighted according to the number of days over which the distribution is made - increased by three percent (3%). The dividend on the preference shares is calculated on the basis of the paid-up part of the nominal amount. If in any year the profit is not sufficient to pay out the dividend to be distributed on the preference shares in accordance with the first sentence of this paragraph, the deficit shall be charged to the freely distributable part of the shareholders' equity insofar as possible.

- 45.3 Any balance remaining thereafter will be distributed as dividend on the ordinary shares.
- 45.4 Profit distributions may not exceed to the amount of the distributable part of the shareholders' equity.
- 45.5 In addition, if losses are incurred in any year, no dividend will be distributed over that year. In subsequent years, too, dividend can only be distributed after the loss has been offset by profits.

However, the general meeting may, on the joint proposal of the supervisory board and the management board, resolve to offset such a loss against the distributable part of the shareholders' equity.

- 45.6 Profits will be distributed after adoption of the annual accounts which show that this is justified.
- 45.7 The management board and the supervisory board may resolve to pay an interim dividend provided that the requirement of paragraph 4 has been met, as evidenced by an interim statement of assets and liabilities. This shall relate to the statement of assets and liabilities at the earliest on the first day of the third month prior to the month in which the resolution to pay an interim dividend is announced. It is drawn up with due observance of valuation methods in accordance with generally accepted standards. The statement of assets and liabilities shall include the amounts to be reserved by law. It shall be signed by the managing directors; if the signature of one or more of them is missing, this shall be stated, with reasons. The statement of assets and liabilities shall be filed at the Commercial Register within eight days of the day on which the resolution to distribute the dividend is announced.
- 45.8 Resolutions to make interim and other distributions shall be made public without delay.
- 45.9 The calculation of the profit distribution does not include the shares held by the company in its capital.

DISTRIBUTIONS IN SHARES AND CHARGED TO THE RESERVES

Article 46.

- 46.1 On the proposal of the management board and the supervisory board, the general meeting may resolve that all or part of a dividend on ordinary shares shall be paid not in cash but in shares in the company.

The provisions of paragraphs 4 up to and including 7 of article 45 shall apply to such distribution.

- 46.2 The general meeting may, on the proposal of the management board and the supervisory board, resolve to make distributions to holders of ordinary shares charged to the distributable part of the shareholders' equity. The provisions of the previous paragraph apply mutatis mutandis.

AVAILABILITY FOR PAYMENT

Article 47.

- 47.1 Dividends and other distributions are payable no later than fourteen days after approval. The availability for payment shall be announced in accordance with article 48.
- 47.2 The shareholder's claim to payment expires after a period of five years.

NOTICES AND NOTIFICATIONS.

Article 48.

- 48.1 All notices convening general meetings of shareholders, all announcements concerning dividends and other distributions and all other notifications to shareholders shall be given by posting a notice to that effect on the company's website, without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 4 of article 11. A notice convening a general meeting of shareholders shall remain directly and permanently accessible via the company's website until the general meeting in question and for at least one year thereafter.
- 48.2 Shareholders in paragraph 1 shall include holders of depositary receipts.

AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION AND DISSOLUTION

Article 49.

- 49.1 The general meeting shall only be authorised to amend these articles of association or to dissolve the company after prior approval of such a resolution by the supervisory board and the management board.

No changes can be made to the rights attached to the preference shares without the approval of the meeting of holders of preference shares.

- 49.2 If a proposal as referred to in this article is submitted to the general meeting, this must always be stated in the notice convening the meeting and, if it concerns an amendment to the articles of association, a copy of the proposal, containing the verbatim text of the proposed amendments, must at the same time be submitted to the office of the company for inspection by the shareholders until the end of the meeting.

The shareholders must be given the opportunity to obtain a copy of the proposal, as referred to in the previous paragraph, from the day of filing with the company's office until the day of the general meeting. These copies are provided at no cost.

- 49.3 Shareholders in paragraph 2 shall include holders of depositary receipts.

LIQUIDATION

Article 50.

- 50.1 In the event of dissolution, the liquidation shall be effected by the managing directors holding office, under the supervision of the supervisory board.
- 50.2 Of the balance of the liquidation account remaining after all other obligations of the company have been fulfilled, the amount paid up on their preference shares shall be distributed, if possible, to the holders of preference shares. The remaining amount is transferred to the holders of ordinary shares in proportion to the nominal value of their shares.
- 50.3 The liquidation will furthermore be subject to the provisions of Title 1, Book 2 Dutch Civil Code.
